

Utah Humanities Council's
Great Salt Lake Book Festival

9th Annual Festival October 26-28, 2006

Request for Information from Authors

Thank you for your interest in the Utah Humanities Council's Great Salt Lake Book Festival. In 2006, we will be expanding the Book Festival to more locations around the State of Utah and reducing the number of presenters at the Salt Lake City Library. Although we will consider all published authors for the Festival, please keep in mind that the number of openings is very limited. If you would like to be considered as a presenter, please fill out and return this form.

Your name:

Email address:

Phone number:

Bibliography:

Please send a list of books or articles you've written, 10 titles maximum, along with publishing information. Please note any awards received and include any relevant reviews.

Presentation:

Please provide a short description of the programming segment you propose (100 word limit). Describe the genre, theme, or other relevant details and why the presentation is appropriate to the Great Salt Lake Book Festival.

Biography:

Please provide a short (100 word limit) biographical statement and include information on your speaking experience.

Availability:

Are you available Oct. 26-28, 2006 in Salt Lake City, Utah? Are you available October 19-November 4, 2006 to present at other locations in Utah?

Money matters:

Please provide a summary of funding needed. Include a dollar amount for minimum stipend or honorarium required. Include any travel, lodging, or other expenses for which you will need reimbursement. (Please keep in mind that our funds are very limited.)
