

Utah Humanities Council Grant Awards
May 2005

This is Still the Place: 1897 Pioneer Jubilee

Daughters of the Utah Pioneers, Salt Lake City

An interactive website exhibition and public lecture series focusing on the 1897 Pioneer Jubilee Celebration.

Contact: Edith Menna (pioneermemorialmuseum@gmail.com; 801-532-6479)

Grant award: $4,908

www.dupinternational.org

Visiting Artist Program

Department of Art, Utah State University, Logan

Public humanities presentations by visiting art critic/art writer in the fall of 2005.

Contact: Marilyn Krannich (mkrann@cc.usu.edu; 435-797-7373)

Grant award: $3,000

www.art.usu.edu

West Valley City 7th Annual Pow-wow

West valley City Native American Association, West Valley City

A series of discussions of the status of American Indian women in traditional and modern-day societies as part of the annual West Valley City pow-wow.

Contact: Prestine James (harryjamesr@hotmail.com; 801-955-1089)

Grant award: $1,800

Guest Writers Series and Outreach Program

Department of English, University of Utah, Salt Lake City

Series of presentations by distinguished writers of fiction, nonfiction, and poetry, at various university and off-campus sites.

Contact: Donald Revell (donald.revell@utah.edu; 801-585-7523)

Grant award: $5,000

www.english.utah.edu

Discovery Trail

Treehouse Children's Museum, Ogden

An interactive exhibit and series of public history presentations on the Lewis and Clark expedition.

Contact: Lynne Goodwin (treehouse@relia.net; 801-394-9663)

Grant award: $5,000

www.treehousemuseum.org

Shaping the American West Conference

Utah Valley State College, Orem

An inter-disciplinary, humanities-focused conference titled "Shaping the American West: A New Western Ethic for the 21st Century."

Contact: Kate McPherson (mcpherka@uvsc.edu; 801-863-8055)

Grant award: $5,000

research.uvsc.edu/AmWest

Big Trouble: The History of Labor in the Intermountain West

Salt Lake Art Center, Salt Lake City

A series of lecture/discussion events and an educational brochure to accompany an exhibition on labor politics in the Intermountain West.

Contact: Jim Edwards (jime@slartcenter.org; 801-328-4201)

Grant award: $4,000

www.slartcenter.org

Literary Opera and Discussion Series

Utah Festival Opera, Logan

Humanities lectures on opera-related topics.

Contact: Darla Seamons (darlas@ufoc.org; 435-750-0300)

Grant award: $2,255

www.ufoc.org

Fulfilling Destinies, Sustaining Lives: The Landscape of the Waterpocket Fold

Capitol Reef National Park, Torrey

Publication of an ethnographic overview of the Waterpocket Fold and the surrounding region that concentrates on traditional uses of the area by Paiute, Ute, Hopi, Zuni and Navajo peoples.

Contact: Anne Worthington (anne_worthington@nps.gov; 435-425-3791)

Grant award: $4,000

www.nps.gov/care

History of Old Pahreah: You and Me Make We

Paria River Natural History Association, Big Water

A monthly mixed-media humanities series which will focus on topics related to history and culture.

Contact: Susan Dodson (pariaoutpost@yahoo.com; 928-691-1047)

Grant award: $1,250

www.paria.com