

Utah Humanities Council Grant Awards
November 2005

Homeland in the West: Utah Jews Remember

Ogden Union Station Foundation, Ogden

A historical photographic exhibition and public lecture series focusing on the contributions of Jewish immigrants to Utah.

Contact: Roberta Beverly (roberta@theunionstation.org; 801-393-9883)

Grant award: $4,500

www.theunionstation.org

Religion and Democracy Conference

Religious Studies Program, Utah Valley State College, Orem

Public conference that explores the relationship between religion and democracy.

Contact: Brian Birch (brian.birch@uvsc.edu; 801-863-8759)

Grant award: $4,440

www.uvsc.edu/phil/religiousstudies

Novel to Film Adaptations

Salt Lake City Film Center, Salt Lake City

Humanities lectures on films adapted from novels.

Contact: Geralyn White Dreyfous (gdreyfous@comcast.net; 801-746-7000)

Grant award: $5,000

www.slcfilmcenter.org

Cultural Landscape: The Meaning and Management of Salt Lake City's Historical Cemetery

Salt Lake City Corporation, Salt Lake City

An historical landscape survey, as well as an historical exhibit and public tours of the Salt Lake City cemetery.

Contact: Rick Graham (rick.graham@slcgov.com; 801-535-7774)

Grant award: $2,500

www.slcgov.com/publicservices

YWCA Centennial HerStory

Museum of Utah Art and History, Salt Lake City

An exhibit of historical photographs and a series of free public presentations on the history of the YWCA.

Contact: Kandace Steadman (ksteadman@muahnet.org; 801-355-5554)

Grant award: $3,000

www.muahnet.org

In Focus: National Geographic Great Portraits

Utah Museum of Natural History, Salt Lake City

An exhibit of photographs that parallel National Geographic's interest in ethnographic studies, accompanied by gallery talks, lectures, and film discussions on various humanities topics.

Contact: Becky Menlove (bmenlove@umnh.utah.gov; 801-585-1073)

Grant award: $2,000

www.umnh.utah.edu

Mountain West Songfest and Symposium

Mountain West Center for Regional Studies, Utah State University, Logan

Lectures, workshops, and discussions about the music of various cultural groups, with an emphasis on the music of the Navajo, Shoshone, and San Juan Pueblo

Contact: Elaine Thatcher (elaine.thatcher@usu.edu; 435-797-0299)

Grant award: $5,000

www.usu.edu

Seventh Annual Winter Storytelling Festival

College of Eastern Utah–San Juan Campus, Blanding

Workshops and lectures on the folklore and history of the Four Corners area.

Contact: Don Larson (donlarson@sjc.ceu.edu; 435-678-2201)

Grant award: $4,500

sjc.ceu.edu/Storytellers/index.html