

Valentine's dance planned

CEDAR CITY – Denim and Diamonds dance club invites community members to attend its Valentine's dance, "The Cowboy Sweethearts' Ball," on Friday.

Sherron Hall, Denim and Diamonds founder and music and dance director, said the club is a non-profit organization that dances every second and fourth Friday.

The Valentine's dance is the club's biggest event of the year, with drawings, refreshments, a dance lesson, a cake walk, "Name That Tune" and other dance games, and lots of social dancing and fun.

"Come bring your sweetheart," she said. "It's like a big party."

Hall said businesses have been very generous this year in donating prizes for the drawings.

There is no dress code for "The Cowboy Sweethearts' Ball," but Hall said to add to the fun people can come in cowboy period dress or more recent Western styles.

The cost is $15 per couple or $8 per individual at the door. The dance is at Dance Magic Studios, behind Domino's Pizza, from 8 to 11 p.m. Friday.

Kanarra town council accepting applications

BY ASHLEY LANGSTON
Managing Editor

KANARRAVILLE – The Kanarraville Town Council is accepting applications for a council member and a new member will be chosen during Thursday's meeting.

The council will meet

Thursday at 7:30 in the town hall and all those interested in the position must apply before then, Mayor Keith Williams said.

Applications are available from Town Clerk David Ence.

The position became available when council member Darcie Hirschi resigned for personal reasons, Williams said.

It is an eight-month position, and new council member will be elected in November. The Kanarraville Town Council is comprised of four council members and the mayor, he said.

Historical society meeting to focus on national park

IRON COUNTY – The Iron County Historical Society will meet today at the Frontier Homestead State Park with the theme "Memories of Zion National Park: Oral History from the 2009 Centennial Celebration."

The meeting is at 7 p.m. and all Iron County Historical Society meetings are free and open to the public.

During the 100th anniversary celebration at Zion National Park, an employee reunion was held. The Utah Humanities Council and Utah State Historical Society partnered with SUU's Gerald R. Sherratt Library and Zion National Park to record 30 oral histories with park employees of decades past and those histories are the basis for tonight's meeting.

The presentation will include video from the recorded histories of NPS, UPC, and TWA employees.

The society invites all former employees of the Utah Parks Company or TW Services who worked at Zion to come to the meeting and share their memories on the program.

SUU Symphony Orchestra, Symphonic Band to present concert at Heritage Theater

CEDAR CITY – With orchestral works from classical masters to exhilarating marches, the SUU Symphony Orchestra and Symphonic Band Concert has something for everyone.

They will present a joint concert Tuesday at the Heritage Theater at 7:30 p.m. General admission adult tickets are $6, and tickets are $4 for SUU Faculty and Staff, $3 for students and children and SUU students attend free with a valid student I.D.

In their first concert of the season, the Symphonic

Band, under the direction of Dr. Mark Stickney, will present an exciting program of musical works including the Finale from the "William Tell Overture" by Gioachino Rossini, "El Relicario" by 20th century composer Jose Padilla, and "Coast Guards March" by Karl King.

The SUU Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Virginia Stitt, will perform the first movement of the Haydn's "Symphony No. 103" and two Romantic Nationalistic pieces, "Baba-Yaga" by Anatol Liadov and "Finlandia" by Jean Sibelius.

Dedicated to performing orchestral masterpieces from the classic symphonic repertoire, the SUU Symphony Orchestra is an auditioned ensemble comprised of instrumentalists of all majors on campus.

Enjoy an evening of orchestral and band favorites with the SUU Symphony Orchestra and Symphonic Band Concert. For more information on the SUU College of Performing and Visual Arts events, call the Arts Hotline at 865-8800, or visit www.suu.edu/arts.
