Madril returns

R. Garrett Madril returns to Kanab on October 21 from the Sao Paulo Brazil East Mission. He will report his mission on Sunday, October 24, at the Kanab Sixth Ward at 9 a.m.

Garrett is the son of Richard and Nancy Madril.

Chamber Meeting Thursday at Nedra's

The Kanab Area Chamber of Commerce will meet at Nedra's Too on Thursday, October 21, at noon for lunch. Join us for community business updates and especially for a special occasion where the chamber will honor the Abundant Life Academy for their community service efforts.

KHS students willing to work to make $$$ for trip

Help send some Kanab High School students to Washington, D.C. this coming April! They need money and they're willing to work for it. Contact the school at 644-5821 from 8 a.m. - 3 p.m. weekdays to schedule.

Rock Art

Sucec resides in Salt Lake City and was the BCS project director, is a visual artist, scholar, independent curator, and teacher. In 1991, Sucec was awarded a Utah Humanities Council Research Fellowship to initiate the BCS PROJECT.

The Art in Rock Art exhibit will be open to the public during regular Browning Library hours, Monday-Thursday from 7:30 a.m.-11:45 p.m., Fridays from 7:30 a.m.-5:45 p.m., Saturdays from 12 noon-6:45 p.m., and Sundays from 3-9:45 p.m.

For more information on viewing the exhibition, please call Ellen Bonadurer at the DSC Browning library at 435-652-7713 or visit www.utahtravelingexhibits.org.

Class of '64 Reunion

The KHS Class of '64 (most of the class of '64 are now 64 years old) enjoyed a weekend reunion October 8-9, that included an ice cream social hosted by Susana Young at the La Estancia clubhouse; a breakfast and dinner cookout at the Holland Ranch prepared by our most amazing "class super chef," Allan Supernaw; an all day ATV ride led by Dave Little, with many of the vehicles supplied by Keith Swapp; a visit to the Kanab Heritage Museum (thanks to Deanna Glover); and old time Western songs provided by Karen and her sister Luana.

The above photo captures some of the classmates at Hidden Lake where the group stopped for lunch (also prepared by Allan) on their ATV adventure: Karen Cox Merrill, Allan Supernaw, Bev Mahoney Willis, Paul Atwater, Dave Little, Susana Young, Jamie Spendlove Williams, Kathleen Smirl Holland and Keith Swapp.

Other classmates also participating in weekend activities, mostly centered at the picturesque Holland Ranch at Johnson Canyon, were: Arlene Begay Salazar, Bruce Bunting, Mark Church, Patricia Dame McDonald, Catherine Dirkmaat Johnstone, Judy Hollingsworth Hamblin, Norman Johnson and Janet Swapp Dixon. The group totaled 31, including spouses and siblings.
