Utah Humanities (UH) is honored to provide rapid-response funding to not-for-profit humanities and cultural organizations facing financial hardship as a result of COVID-19. Funding for this grant is provided by the CARES Act and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Grant Amount
- Awards up to $20,000 based on average 3-year annual operating budget

Deadline
- 11:59 pm on May 22, 2020

Notification
- June 1, 2020

Date funds will be distributed
- We will begin the process upon notification and will send funds as quickly as possible.

Reporting Due to UH
- October 31, 2020

Additional Details
- This grant is available to Utah not-for-profit organizations that provide humanities programming, and that are facing financial hardship due to COVID-19.
- This grant is for general operating support.
- This grant does not require a match/cost-share, but this information is appreciated.
- As required by federal guidelines, all applying organizations must have a DUNS number.
- Utah Humanities CARES Grants are funded through the National Endowment for the Humanities, with funds from the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act legislation passed by Congress.