

THE WAY WE WORKED

As a junction for the transcontinental railroad, Ogden's Union Station has been a busy hub for Utah's economy since 1869. © Union Station Foundation

PLEASE JOIN UTAH HUMANITIES and the UNION STATION FOUNDATION as we celebrate the kick-off of the Smithsonian Institution's Museum on Main Street exhibition, The Way We Worked, as it begins its year-long tour across Utah!

REDISCOVER the strength and spirit of American workers through rare archival images, compelling videos, and fascinating interviews. The Way We Worked explores the role of work in American life over the last 150 years, and in Ogden is complemented with Weber County Works, a local exhibition celebrating the diversity and innovation of Weber County's workforce.

EXHIBITION GRAND OPENING
January 28, 2017
12:00pm

Live work demonstrations and more!

Union Station Museums
2501 Wall Avenue, Ogden, Utah 84401

Learn more at www.utahhumanities.org

#UtahWorks

The Way We Worked is an exhibition created by the National Archives and is part of Museum on Main Street, a collaboration between the Smithsonian Institution and Utah Humanities.

YOU ARE INVITED!

