

Hauling equipment to the Silver King Consolidated Mine, ca 1910.
Courtesy Park City Historical Society & Museum.

GET TO WORK! Join us for FREE activities in Park City!

NOVEMBER 11, 2017 – JANUARY 10, 2018

Park City Museum
528 Main Street, Park City, UT
435.649.7457

www.parkcityhistory.org

Free with museum admission

Enjoy two EXHIBITIONS at the Park City Museum!

- The Way We Worked is a traveling Smithsonian exhibition that explores the central place of work in American culture by tracing changes in our workplaces and workforce over the last 150 years.
- The Way Park City Worked tells the stories of several Park City workers pre-1950, who pursued careers outside the mining industry, when mining was the backbone of Park City's economy.

Enjoy free admission to the Park City Museum on November 14, December 5, and January 9.

NOVEMBER 11, 2017

10:30am

Park City Museum, 528 Main Street

Exhibition Opening Celebrates the Work Contributions of Local Veterans

Join us to launch Park City Museum's newest traveling exhibition, The Way We Worked, accompanied by our exhibit The Way Park City Worked. Celebrate the contributions of local veterans on Veteran's Day.

NOVEMBER 15, 2017

5:00pm-6:00pm

Park City Museum, 528 Main Street

History Speaks Lecture – Work in America: Where Park City & Utah Fit In with Matthew Basso

The US has seen several revolutions – some recognized, others forgotten – in the way we work. Join Matt Basso (University of Utah Professor of History) to explore this history and think through some of the unique – and not so unique – aspects of the history of work in Park City and Utah.

NOVEMBER 16, 2017

10:00am & 11:00am

Park City Library, 1255 Park Avenue

Park City Story Times

Come listen to stories about work and join us for an activity afterward. 10:00am is for pre-schoolers and 11:00am is for toddlers. Museum passes will be available to participants.

NOVEMBER 16, 2017

6:00-8:30pm

Park City Library, 1255 Park Avenue

Reel Community Series – Park City Film Series presents "Dolores"

Dolores Huerta is among the most important activists in American history. Co-founder with Cesar Chavez of the first farm workers unions, Huerta's enormous contributions have gone largely unrecognized.

DECEMBER 2, 2017

11:00am-1:00pm

Park City Museum, 528 Main Street

Family Fun Saturday – Making Clay Pots

Pottery is one of the world's oldest art forms and making it is one of the oldest jobs. Come try your hand at various pot-making techniques using air-dry clay. Free activity from the Utah Museum of Fine Arts.

DECEMBER 6, 2017

5:00pm-6:00pm

PCM Education Center, 2079 Sidewinder

History Speaks Lecture – A Day in the Life of a Park City Miner 1870-1900 with Donovan Symonds

For more than 100 years, mining – not skiing – was the basis of Park City's economy. Learn the basics of this industry, as well as its hazards and rewards, from mining engineer Donovan Symonds.

DECEMBER 7, 2017

5:30pm-6:30pm

Dolly's Bookstore, 510 Main Street

Dolly's Book Club – Callings: The Purpose & Passion of Work

This month's book club selection is Dave Isay's Callings: The Purpose & Passion of Work. Read ahead and come ready to discuss! Museum passes will be available to participants.

DECEMBER 13, 2017

5:00pm-6:00pm

PCM Education & Collections Center,
2079 Sidewinder

History Speaks Lecture – Utah's Chinese Workforce with Chris Merritt

Thousands of Chinese workers came to Utah with the construction of the transcontinental railroad in 1869. Join archaeologist Chris Merritt (Deputy State Historic Preservation Officer) to learn about their impressive historical and archaeological legacy.

JANUARY 8, 2018

5:00pm-7:00pm

Park City Museum, 528 Main Street

Writing Workshop – From Miners to Nomads: Work Culture in Park City with Richard Ellis

Park City has transformed from a mining town into a haven for digital nomads. Join one of these nomads, professional ghostwriter Richard Ellis, as he digs into the culture of local web commuters and takes the audience through an interactive exercise. Space is limited – RSVP to mrুদ্ধell@parkcityhistory.org.

The Way We Worked, an exhibition created by the National Archives, is part of Museum on Main Street, a collaboration between the Smithsonian Institution and Utah Humanities, touring in partnership with the Park City Museum. WWW.UTAHHUMANITIES.ORG

