GET IN MOTION! Join us for free activities in Ephraim!

Journey Stories is a traveling Smithsonian Museum on Main Street exhibition that explores how migration and transportation built our nation, how it has changed us, and how our mobile world looked to travelers along the way. From Native Americans to new American citizens and regardless of our background, everyone has a journey story... what's yours?

Library Hours: Mon-Thurs 7:30am - 12:00am, Fri 7:30am - 7:00pm, Sat 12:00 - 6:00pm, Sun 5:00 - 11:00pm

Going This Way looks at the traditions and implications of American vacation travel, its ties with leisure and risk, and its shaping of American identity. These artists invite us to consider not where we go, but how we go. Exhibition curated by Kelly Brooks in the Main Gallery.

By Car, By Plane, By Boat, By Train. From the invention of the wheel to the first space flight, the compulsion to travel further, higher, faster, deeper has resulted in a multitude of mechanized vehicles and vessels. This exhibition explores the obsession to mutate, and showcases assemblage contraptions which reinterpret modes of transportation on land, in the air, and at sea. Exhibition curated by Adam Larsen in the CCA Christensen Gallery.

Swapping Stories: Come share your journey stories! Take an artwork made by someone else, as long as you replace it with a work of your own. Interactive activity in the Main Gallery Upper Level.

How We Go, Why We Go: A Night of Community Stories
Local community members and students share stories of travel and mobility while drawing connections to our cultural identity. Many of the stories are part of the Going This Way exhibition in the Main Gallery of Granary Art Center.

Family Art Activity: Journey Stories Journal Sketchbooks
Journey stories are tales of how, when, and why we move around. From short day trips to long moves, recording your journey story is important for you and your family. Come create your own journal sketchbook in this free family workshop conducted by the Utah Museum of Fine Arts.

Reception for Journey Stories in Ephraim
Join us to celebrate the Smithsonian Journey Stories exhibition and Ephraim’s accompanying exhibitions, Going This Way and By Car, By Plane, By Boat, By Train. Reception includes a performance by the Snow Dance Ensemble called Modern Dance Journeys Through Time, a choreographed journey through the history of modern dance beginning with early dance pioneers. Performance starts at 8:00pm. Visit Journey Stories at the Huntsman Library until 9:00pm.

What’s Your Journey Story?: A Night of Community Stories
Join us for an evening of storytelling by local community members and students as they share their own and collected stories of migration.

Journey Stories is part of Museum on Main Street, a collaboration between the Smithsonian Institution and the Utah Humanities Council, touring in partnership with the Granary Art Center and Snow College.
