SMITHSONIAN HAPPENINGS

Smithsonian “Museum on Main Street” Comes to Moab Center Street!

The Smithsonian “Journey Stories,” a Museum on Main Street exhibition which makes its Utah debut in Moab, is an unparalleled opportunity for the Moab community to tell their own journey stories and participate in a nationwide conversation about mobility in America. All events are offered through the Museum of Moab in partnership with the Utah Humanities Council through July 11th, and give the local community and tourists alike an opportunity to explore the idea of mobility in many informative and hands-on ways.

John Foster, Executive Director of the Museum of Moab, encourages everyone to participate and says “this is about our unique history as a community and as individuals. We have a line-up of events that will appeal to all ages and interests, and look forward to not only revisiting our history but also documenting current experiences with mobility and travel.”

MAY 24 – JULY 11, 2014
Museum of Moab
Mon-Sat 10:00 am – 6:00 pm
118 East Center Street, Moab
Two exhibitions at the Museum of Moab
• Journey Stories is a traveling Smithsonian exhibition that explores how migration and transportation built our nation, how it has changed us, and how our mobile world looked to travelers along the way. Everyone has a journey story... what’s yours?
• Uranium Stories: The Pilgrimage to Moab and Those Who Stayed showcases local journey stories of those who came to Moab during the uranium exploration and mining boom.

MAY 23 – JUNE 27, 2014
Every Friday evening
6:00 pm
Museum of Moab
118 East Center Street, Moab
• June 6 – Grand County road expert Dave Vaughn speaks about the history of scenic Highway 128.
• June 13 – Long-time Moab resident Lloyd Holyoak tells about the history of La Sal cattle drives.
• June 20 – BLM archaeologist Don Montoya shares the story of the Pinhook Battle of 1881 at the Moab Information Center, 25 E. Center Street, Moab. Moab Community Journey Story-telling. Weekly Series.

JUNE 21, 2014
10:30 am – 12:30 pm
Grand County Library
25 East Center Street, Moab
Free Family Art Activity: Journey Stories Journal Sketchbooks.

Journey Stories are tales of how, when, and why we move around. From short day trips to long moves, recording your journey story is important. For this family art activity we will make a journal sketchbook to record your own journey story. Workshop conducted by Education Curators from Utah Museum of Fine Arts, with thanks to Grand County library for hosting.

JUNE 28, 2014
10:00 am – 1:00 pm
Grand County Library
25 East Center Street, Moab
Preserving Family & Community History – A Three-Hour Adventure.
More than glimpses of past events, oral history captures individual, family, community and world history in a personal way. Learn the ins and outs of conducting oral history interviews, research processes, technical aspects of recording, and how to become an effective listener. Interested in starting an oral history project? This free workshop is a great place to begin. Bring a favorite photo or family item to help us delve into personal and community history. Workshop conducted by Eileen Hallet Stone, an award-winning writer and oral historian, with thanks to Grand County library for hosting.

MAY 24 – JULY 11, 2014
Grand County Library
257 East Center Street, Moab
Utah Museum of Fine Arts’ Traveling Museum Project: Journey Stories
What do you think of when you think of a journey? A favorite trip, moving to a new city, growing up, or maybe an object, something that reminds you of a memory from an important life event? Come see artwork that illuminates our global cultural landscape through a common theme of journey stories.
The UMFA’s Traveling Museum Project installs exhibitions in communities and schools throughout Utah. Thanks to Grand County library for hosting.
