Families and youth are encouraged to participate in the 4-H club. The most rewarding part of being a leader is watching kids learn new skills. The most rewarding part of being a leader is watching kids learn new skills and improving the ones they already have. The most rewarding part of being a leader is watching kids learn new skills and improving the ones they already have.

Sourceteng1

The Latest Camp of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers will meet for their monthly meeting on Monday, January 15 at 2 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Brigham City North Stake Center located on 300 East and 600 North. New members are welcomed.

Library sets book discussion event

Final Salute: America in a Time of War starts tomorrow at the library and will continue throughout the year. Final Salute is a reading discussion series funded by the Utah Humanities Council and the Brigham City Library to discuss America in a Time of War with titles that confront the effects of modern warfare, civilians and the families of those who are deployed by war. The discussion through December will be at the library located at 20 East Forest Street on the first Thursday of the month at 7 p.m. Each class will have a university professor leading the discussion which is free and open to the public.

The book for each discussion will be available a month before the discussion and can be checked out at no cost. For more information call the Library Director, Sue Hill at 435-723-9550.

Skinny Stickin’ the Dam

Skinny Stickin’ the Dam is an event taking place as part of the Sights and Sounds of Brigham City. This activity is a cross-country skis around the Man- na- sus Reservoir on the Mananua golf course sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. The event is scheduled for Saturday, January 15, from 9 a.m. -11 a.m. If you would like to participate but do not have cross country skis, you can prepare Friday, January 7, on Brigham City’s website to reserve tickets and to sign up for the Brigham City Recreation’s Office at the Heritage Building Center located at 641 East 200 North or at W. Clark Anderson Office at 1 East 100 North Suite C.

BEHS Dedication

The dedication ceremony for the Box Elder High School was scheduled for Wednesday, Jan- uary 12, 2011 at 6 p.m. and will be held on the lawn of the school. The dedication will be followed by a regular school board meeting at approximately 7 p.m. The community is invited to attend both events.

Family Center sets classes

The Box Elder Family Support Center will be offering three classes. The classes, times and locations are as follows: StepParent Information will be held Tuesday evenings from 6-8 p.m. The class will run for five weeks and the cost is $35. Parent Education: Positive Parenting is being taught on Wednesday evenings from 6-8 p.m. The class will run for five weeks and the cost is $55. Call 435-723-9550 for more information and to sign up.

The Box Elder Family Support Center and cost is $20.

Free classes are offered for five weeks with a cost of $25.

Family Dentistry • Preventive Care • Cosmetic Dentistry

Though free to the public, participants will need to pick up mov- ie tickets at Sumko - Higbee Office at 990 Medical Drive, Suite 3 for a cost of $15. Call 435-720-1701 for more information.

Skinny Stickin’ the Dam

Skinny Stickin’ the Dam is an event taking place as part of the Sights and Sounds of Brigham City. This activity is a cross-country ski around the Man- na- sus Reservoir on the Mananua golf course sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. The event is scheduled for Saturday, January 15, from 9 a.m. -11 a.m. If you would like to participate but do not have cross country skis, you can prepare Friday, January 7, on Brigham City’s website to reserve tickets and to sign up for the Brigham City Recreation’s Office at the Heritage Building Center located at 641 East 200 North or at W. Clark Anderson Office at 1 East 100 North Suite C.

Library sets book discussion event

Final Salute: America in a Time of War starts tomorrow at the library and will continue throughout the year. Final Salute is a reading dis- cussion series funded by the Utah Humanities Council and the Brigham City Library to discuss America in a Time of War with titles that confront the effects of modern warfare, civilians and the families of those who are deployed by war. The discussion through December will be at the library located at 20 East Forest Street on the first Thursday of the month at 7 p.m. Each class will have a university professor leading the discussion which is free and open to the public.

The book for each discussion will be available a month before the discussion and can be checked out at no cost. For more information call the Library Director, Sue Hill at 435-723-9550.

BEHS Dedication

The dedication ceremony for the Box Elder High School was scheduled for Wednesday, Jan- uary 12, 2011 at 6 p.m. and will be held on the lawn of the school. The dedication will be followed by a regular school board meeting at approximately 7 p.m. The community is invited to attend both events.

Family Center sets classes

The Box Elder Family Support Center will be offering three classes. The classes, times and locations are as follows: StepParent Information will be held Tuesday evenings from 6-8 p.m. The class will run for five weeks and the cost is $35. Parent Education: Positive Parenting is being taught on Wednesday evenings from 6-8 p.m. The class will run for five weeks and the cost is $55. Call 435-723-9550 for more information and to sign up.

The Box Elder Family Support Center and cost is $20.

Free classes are offered for five weeks with a cost of $25.

Family Dentistry • Preventive Care • Cosmetic Dentistry

Though free to the public, participants will need to pick up mov- ie tickets at Sumko - Higbee Office at 990 Medical Drive, Suite 3 for a cost of $15. Call 435-720-1701 for more information.

Skinny Stickin’ the Dam

Skinny Stickin’ the Dam is an event taking place as part of the Sights and Sounds of Brigham City. This activity is a cross-country ski around the Man- na- sus Reservoir on the Mananua golf course sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. The event is scheduled for Saturday, January 15, from 9 a.m. -11 a.m. If you would like to participate but do not have cross country skis, you can prepare Friday, January 7, on Brigham City’s website to reserve tickets and to sign up for the Brigham City Recreation’s Office at the Heritage Building Center located at 641 East 200 North or at W. Clark Anderson Office at 1 East 100 North Suite C.

Library sets book discussion event

Final Salute: America in a Time of War starts tomorrow at the library and will continue throughout the year. Final Salute is a reading dis- cussion series funded by the Utah Humanities Council and the Brigham City Library to discuss America in a Time of War with titles that confront the effects of modern warfare, civilians and the families of those who are deployed by war. The discussion through December will be at the library located at 20 East Forest Street on the first Thursday of the month at 7 p.m. Each class will have a university professor leading the discussion which is free and open to the public.

The book for each discussion will be available a month before the discussion and can be checked out at no cost. For more information call the Library Director, Sue Hill at 435-723-9550.

BEHS Dedication

The dedication ceremony for the Box Elder High School was scheduled for Wednesday, Jan- uary 12, 2011 at 6 p.m. and will be held on the lawn of the school. The dedication will be followed by a regular school board meeting at approximately 7 p.m. The community is invited to attend both events.

Family Center sets classes

The Box Elder Family Support Center will be offering three classes. The classes, times and locations are as follows: StepParent Information will be held Tuesday evenings from 6-8 p.m. The class will run for five weeks and the cost is $35. Parent Education: Positive Parenting is being taught on Wednesday evenings from 6-8 p.m. The class will run for five weeks and the cost is $55. Call 435-723-9550 for more information and to sign up.

The Box Elder Family Support Center and cost is $20.

Free classes are offered for five weeks with a cost of $25.

Family Dentistry • Preventive Care • Cosmetic Dentistry

Though free to the public, participants will need to pick up mov- ie tickets at Sumko - Higbee Office at 990 Medical Drive, Suite 3 for a cost of $15. Call 435-720-1701 for more information.

Skinny Stickin’ the Dam

Skinny Stickin’ the Dam is an event taking place as part of the Sights and Sounds of Brigham City. This activity is a cross-country ski around the Man- na- sus Reservoir on the Mananua golf course sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. The event is scheduled for Saturday, January 15, from 9 a.m. -11 a.m. If you would like to participate but do not have cross country skis, you can prepare Friday, January 7, on Brigham City’s website to reserve tickets and to sign up for the Brigham City Recreation’s Office at the Heritage Building Center located at 641 East 200 North or at W. Clark Anderson Office at 1 East 100 North Suite C.

Library sets book discussion event

Final Salute: America in a Time of War starts tomorrow at the library and will continue throughout the year. Final Salute is a reading dis- cussion series funded by the Utah Humanities Council and the Brigham City Library to discuss America in a Time of War with titles that confront the effects of modern warfare, civilians and the families of those who are deployed by war. The discussion through December will be at the library located at 20 East Forest Street on the first Thursday of the month at 7 p.m. Each class will have a university professor leading the discussion which is free and open to the public.

The book for each discussion will be available a month before the discussion and can be checked out at no cost. For more information call the Library Director, Sue Hill at 435-723-9550.

BEHS Dedication

The dedication ceremony for the Box Elder High School was scheduled for Wednesday, Jan- uary 12, 2011 at 6 p.m. and will be held on the lawn of the school. The dedication will be followed by a regular school board meeting at approximately 7 p.m. The community is invited to attend both events.

Family Center sets classes

The Box Elder Family Support Center will be offering three classes. The classes, times and locations are as follows: StepParent Information will be held Tuesday evenings from 6-8 p.m. The class will run for five weeks and the cost is $35. Parent Education: Positive Parenting is being taught on Wednesday evenings from 6-8 p.m. The class will run for five weeks and the cost is $55. Call 435-723-9550 for more information and to sign up.

The Box Elder Family Support Center and cost is $20.

Free classes are offered for five weeks with a cost of $25.

Family Dentistry • Preventive Care • Cosmetic Dentistry

Though free to the public, participants will need to pick up mov- ie tickets at Sumko - Higbee Office at 990 Medical Drive, Suite 3 for a cost of $15. Call 435-720-1701 for more information.

Skinny Stickin’ the Dam

Skinny Stickin’ the Dam is an event taking place as part of the Sights and Sounds of Brigham City. This activity is a cross-country ski around the Man- na- sus Reservoir on the Mananua golf course sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. The event is scheduled for Saturday, January 15, from 9 a.m. -11 a.m. If you would like to participate but do not have cross country skis, you can prepare Friday, January 7, on Brigham City’s website to reserve tickets and to sign up for the Brigham City Recreation’s Office at the Heritage Building Center located at 641 East 200 North or at W. Clark Anderson Office at 1 East 100 North Suite C.