Continued from previous page

the children an opportunity to learn the importance of keeping their bodies healthy by staying away from drugs, tobacco, and alcohol. The PTA will be hosting a variety of fun activities to help children steer clear of drugs. Monday is Brainsday Day. All students will receive bracelets to wear during the week. Those who wear the bracelet on Friday will receive a treat. Tuesday is Sports.

Look at your community newspapers to get the full report on lunches and happenings that affect you.

SPRINGVILLE

Scary stories for teens and adults — Come get a fright from Claire Parkinson, professional storyteller, on Oct. 29 at 7 p.m. Those stories at the Springville Library, 93 S. Main St., are a lot too intense for the little ones.

Woodland Hills

New Recycling Receptile — A bright blue container has been placed at the mail boxes to accept recyclable paper, cardboard and plastics, but no glass. If you do not need to sort your paper, card board or plastics, you do not need to use this receptile. The container is for paper and plastics only. It is being provided by the Utah State Solid Waste District (USWWD) for free charge.

Utah County Democratic Women of Utah

The first event will be the kickoff for the 2011 campaign season. There will be a fundraiser breakfast at the Springville Library, 50 S. Main St. For people 18 and older.

Every five minutes, another Chase customer smiles

THE NEXT PURCHASE COULD BE ON US

Chase Picks Up the Tab is back and better than ever. Now when you use your Chase debit or credit card in a qualifying purchase, we may cover it. And best of all, it’s free to enroll your Chase cards. Now that’s something you can’t say about anything else.

Chase WHAT MATTERS Get a seat at the dinner table.

Chase is helping to improve the lives of millions of Americans by donating 108 million meals to local food banks in 2010, paying a total of $1.35 million to 300 local charity partners by matching customer donations. Chase is donating meals to help feed people in need, and giving back to the communities where Chase’s customers live and work.

Visit a branch to enroll today.

NO PURCHASE NECESSARY TO ENTER OR WIN. A PURCHASE OR BANK TRANSACTION WILL NOT INCREASE YOUR CHANCE OF WINNING. The Chase Pick Up the Tab Promotion (“Promotion”) is open only to individuals who are residents of the United States, excluding residents of Puerto Rico, who are 18 years of age or older at the time of entry. To enroll in the Promotion, the account holder of a Chase debit or credit card must visit a Chase branch by December 31, 2010 (the “Enrollment Period”) (a “Participant”) and complete an enrollment form. Chase will not enroll accounts of accounts that have not met the requirements of these Official Rules. The Chase Pick Up the Tab Promotion is offered by JPMorgan Chase & Co. and its subsidiaries (collectively, “Chase”). Chase credit card participants must have a Chase checking account. Other restrictions apply. For more events, dates, times and locations, please visit the library’s website at www.omslibrary.org. Fund- ing for Open Read comes in part from the Utah Humanities Council Book Festival. The Utah Humanities Council promotes understanding of human traditions and values through informed public discussions. Additional support for Open Read programs in local schools was provided by Walmart, Money’s Market and Harmony Grocery.

Chase... your next purchase could be on us.