Arlington Hill Blast
The explosion that rocked Salt Lake City in 1876

Salt Lake City was the scene of an explosion on April 3, 1876, in which 35 were killed and 100 injured. The blast had occurred at the Navy Yard, located on the west side of the city, and it was caused by a buildup of stored ordnance. The blast was so powerful that it was felt as far away as St. George, Utah.

In Memoriam
Thomas James Hamilton “Coach”
December 21, 1930 - February 27, 2013

Thomas James Hamilton, known as Coach, was a beloved figure in the community of Richfield, Utah. He was the head baseball coach at Richfield High School for many years, and his legacy lives on through the many young men and women he inspired with his passion for the sport.

George W. Cross

George W. Cross, 61, peace officer, was killed in the line of duty on March 27, 2013, in Richfield, Utah. He was a veteran of the Utah Highway Patrol, and he had served his community with distinction.

Inez George Beeston

Inez George Beeston passed away on Monday, January 7, 2013, at her home in Holden, Utah. She was a beloved member of the community, known for her warmth and kindness.

Rick D. Jensen

Rick D. Jensen was a dedicated member of the Richfield community, serving as a member of the Richfield City Council for many years.

Conditions of employment may be left at www.richfieldcity.org.