PETS OF THE WEEK

Kia is a 1 1/2-year-old Sheltie. Her owner, brother Max, was signed over to the shelter because his owner could not afford to care for her. Max is a very sweet dog, she does not react when she goes to sleep and is available to anyone interested in adopting her.

The Davis County Animal Shelter is in Harrisville and is at 801-425-2885. It is open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday and is closed Sunday.

Now, refugee women and children from different countries in Africa pick out clothing from the donations brought into the center by the students. Each year the State of Utah Refugees Office sees around 1,100 refugees, largely through donations and volunteer efforts. All of the donations are given to the refugees who find their way to the center, helping them to get started as they settle into their new homes.

The scholarship pageant is a key role in refugee services in the state, said "We really need both sides to benefit from the experience of these services, we encourage people to not only make donations and sort the clothing, but to come and see the refugees as well." It was awesome to see how much they appreciated something as small as a knit hat or a dress," Glaze said. "It’s nice to know that we’re making a difference for those people that have been through so much.
