OBITUARIES

Mary Lou Cochran and Nicholas "Bugs" Ronald Stever
Mary Lou Cochran, age 66, died in St. George, Utah on July 2, 2010. Mary Lou was born in Beaverton, California to Orval and Helen Hixson on April 30, 1944 and married Harry Bandy and Amy Bland. She lived in California for over 20 years before coming to St. George to be with her family. While living in California she worked as the archivist at Valley View School for decades. During her years in St. George she served as the full-time Secretary at Valley View Elementary School. In 2000, she was named Elementary School of the Year by the Utah State Department of Education. She was featured in the program "100 Women Who Changed Utah" by the University of Utah. Mary Lou loved family history. She used to report on other incidents at Valley View School. She was an avid genealogist and loved to pass on the family lore. She is survived by her daughter Debra Hixson; grandchildren Mallory, Rick and great-grandchildren Alana, Jacob, and Alyssa Wysocki. Mary Lou was preceded in death by her parents Orval and Helen Hixson; her sister Cheryl; and a brother, Steve. Services will be held at the St. George Mortuary at 1200 W. St. George Blvd. The services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, July 8, 2010. Mary Lou and Harry will have been married for 41 years. A private family burial will follow. Arrangements are being handled by Pineview Mortuary.

OCTOBERS

Cedar City-Brian Head Labor Day Weekend Music Festival
Music exhibit on display in Cedar City
Music exhibit on display in Cedar City
Music exhibit on display in Cedar City
Music exhibit on display in Cedar City
Music exhibit on display in Cedar City
Music exhibit on display in Cedar City
Music exhibit on display in Cedar City
Music exhibit on display in Cedar City
Music exhibit on display in Cedar City
Music exhibit on display in Cedar City

Around Town

Events

Cedar City-Clearfield Performing Arts Center
• Downtown St. George presents "Crazy For Corn" at 7 p.m. on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, August 4-27 in the St. George Shuffleboard Park. Tickets are $15 or $10 for seniors and students. Log on to www.recreationstg.org for tickets.

Arrests

The Spectrum reports arrests for probable cause. Probable cause means there is evidence to believe a crime has been committed. To report an arrest on other matters in the spectrum, call 435-986-4222.

Cedar City-Marcus J. White, 35 E. 100 S., St. George, was arrested on Thursday, June 24, 2010, and charged with two counts of theft, minor consumption.

To report on other incidents at Valley View School. She was an avid genealogist and loved to pass on the family lore.